SHTUKA DRUKA

Cardboard mockup 1:1 - panel v7 - body 515 x 460 mm, 68 mm front, 143 mm rear

Every sheet has a 100 mm bar at the bottom. Measure it before cutting.

JOINING SHEETS

Sheets overlap by 10 mm. On a sheet with a neighbour to the right or above, the shaded GLUE band shows where the next sheet goes.

Trim the next sheet along its CUT edge, lay it on the band, align the drawing and the 50 mm grid lines, glue. The mini map (top right) shows the sheet position.

PARTS

Top panel	515 x 300	1	printed
Screen panel	515 x 150	1	printed, cut out screen
Rear shelf	515 x 30	1	printed (rear jack labels)
Side profile	460 x 143	2	printed
Rear panel	515 x 143	1	printed
Front panel	515 x 68	1	printed
Base	515 x 460	1	cut by ruler
Wrist rest	221.5 x 70, h 58/24	1 set	profile printed

ASSEMBLY

1. Glue the printed sheets onto cardboard (3-5 mm), then cut along the thick outer lines.
2. Base 515 x 460. Glue both side profiles on its left and right edges, standing up.
3. Glue the front panel (68 high) and rear panel (143 high) between the sides.
   With board thickness t, shorten front, rear, top and screen panels by 2t in width.
4. Glue the top panel flat at 68 mm, the screen panel on the 30 deg slope, the rear shelf on top.
5. Glue the wrist rest in front of the device, between x = 110 and 331.5 mm (under the pads).
6. Knobs: bottle caps or coins on the circles. Wheel: 38 mm lid. Pads: 25.5 x 21 mm pieces.

WHAT TO CHECK

Sit as you normally work. Reach Capture, the 8 screen knobs, the wheel and Filter without stretching.

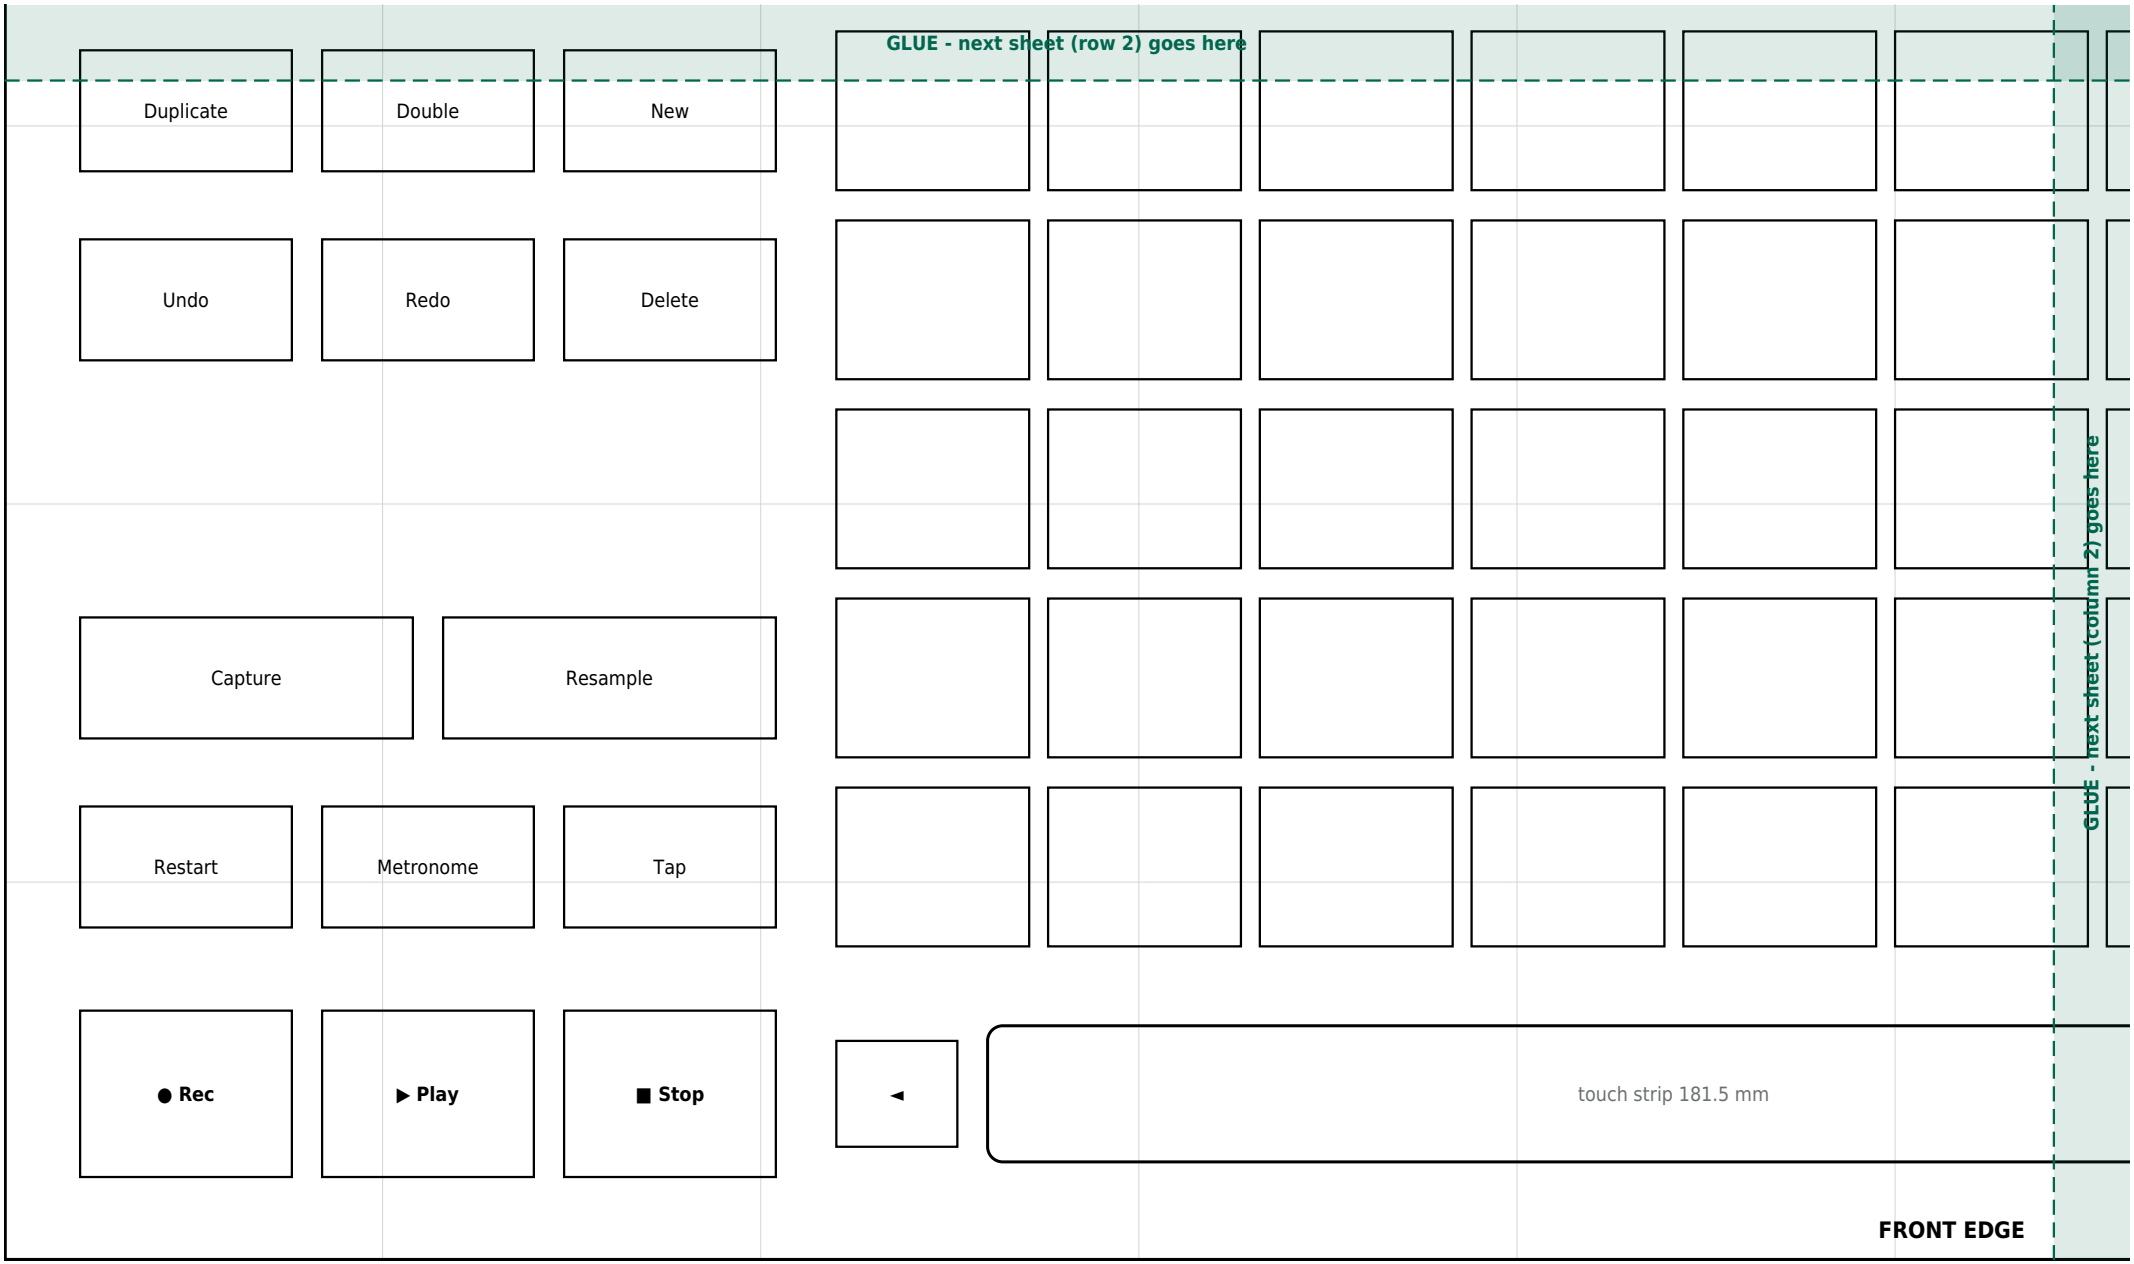

Two fingers on one pad: is 25.5 mm wide enough? Do palms on the touch strip get in the way?

Wheel next to the slope: is there room for your knuckles? Is the screen readable?

Do your wrists rest comfortably while playing the pads? Note anything awkward.
